

BLOKNOT AGITATORA. No. 24. August 1951

"Subjects, plans, and literature for state during September 1951."

I. New conditions for all-Union socialist competition -- an important way to advance greatly the national economy of the USSR.

1. All-Union socialist competition -- a powerful means for bringing about a new upsurge of the national economy and a great increase in the material well-being of the toiling masses.
2. Sixth Plenum of the VTSUPS regarding new conditions for all-Union socialist competition.
3. Struggle for a higher qualitative performance in the work of every enterprise together with the absolute fulfillment of the state plan for established type and variety -- the main condition for all-Union socialist competition.
4. Increase in workers' production qualifications, mastery of advanced work methods, and application of achievements of production innovators -- the basis for improved forms of the Stakhanovite movement.
5. Creative cooperation between workers of science and production -- one of the conditions for improving the technological and economic performance of the work of enterprises.
6. Struggle for the fulfillment of the new conditions of all-Union socialist competition -- a matter of honor for Moscow industrial workers.

Literature

- "To Comrade Iosif Vissarionovich Stalin, Chairman of the Council of Ministers USSR. From the Workers, Engineering-Technical Workers and Employees of Enterprises of Industry and Transport of the City of Moscow and Moscow Oblast," Moscow, 15 July 1951.
"Concerning the Decisions of the Sixth Plenum of VTSUPS," Moscow, 12 August 1951.
"On Improving the Work of Trade Union Organizations in Directing Socialist Competition," Decree of the Sixth Plenum of VTSUPS, Moscow, 12 August 1951.
"To Improve Leadership of Socialist Competition," Moscow, 12 August 1951.

II. Socialist competition to lower costs of production will be carried out on a broader scale.

1. I. V. Stalin on the systematic lowering of industrial production costs as the basic line of our industrial development.
2. Reduction of expense in production and increase in profitability and profits -- the main tasks of every enterprise.

3. Increasing labor productivity, improving the quality of what is produced, and severely economizing on raw materials and goods are the ways in which to reduce production costs.
4. We shall popularize on a broad scale the patriotic initiative of Stakhanovites Mariya Lovchenko and Grigory Mukhametov of the Buryavinsk factory, and shall conduct socialist competition to lower the cost of production in each operation.
5. The progress of socialist competition to lower cost of production in each operation in our brigade and shop.

Literature

- I. V. Stalin, "Speech to the Fifth All-Union Conference of VLKSM," Pravda, Vol. 9, pp. 193 - 197.
 "To Comrade Iosif Vissarionovich Stalin, Chairman of the Council of Ministers USSR. From the Workers, Engineering-technical Workers and Employees of Enterprises of Industry and Transport of the City of Moscow and Moscow Oblast," Pravda, 15 July 1951.
 "The Bureau of the Moscow City Committee of the KPP(b) Concerning the Initiative of Stakhanovites of the Buryavinsk Factory," Moskovskaya Pravda, 16 August 1951.
 "Popularize More Widely the Experience of the Innovators of Buryavinsk Factory," Moskovskaya Pravda, 17 August 1951.

- ELI. Produce goods of only the best quality and respect the honor of the factory and plant trademark.
1. Continuous improvement of the quality of what is produced - a task of national economic importance.
2. Fulfillment of the plan not only for the quantity, but also for the quality and variety of goods produced - an immutable law for enterprises of socialist industry.
3. Make wide use of the valuable experience of enterprises, shops, and brigades with collective Stakhanovite labor and excellent quality, and the experience of innovators of production.
4. To produce goods of only the highest quality and to value highly the honor of the factory and plant trademark is the patriotic duty of every production collective.
5. The way in which the struggle for high-quality production is being waged in our enterprise, shop, and brigade.

Literature

- "To Comrade Iosif Vissarionovich Stalin, Chairman of the Council of Ministers USSR. From the Workers, Engineering-technical Workers and Employees of Enterprises of Industry and Transport of the City of Moscow and Moscow Oblast," Pravda, 15 July 1951.
 "For the High Quality of Production," Pravda, 6 July 1951.
 "To Improve Leadership of Socialist Competition," Pravda, 12 August 1951.

IV. Pre-schedule fulfillment of the plan for housing and cultural-welfare construction in 1951 -- the militant task of construction workers.

1. Increase in housing and cultural-welfare construction in our country -- evidence of the continual concern of the party, government, and Comrade Stalin for the further betterment of the life of the toilers.
2. Fulfillment of the daily schedule at all construction sites, and fulfillment and overfulfillment by each worker of work norms -- the necessary condition for pre-schedule fulfillment of the production plan in 1951.
3. Correct utilization of machines and popularization of the experience of leading construction workers are the ways to increase labor productivity.
4. Improvement of the quality of work, economical use of material, and reduction in the cost of construction work -- a matter of honor for all Moscow construction workers.
5. How the obligations undertaken in the letter to Comrade Stalin are being fulfilled in our building section and brigades.

Literature:

- "To Comrade I. V. Stalin, From the Participants of the City Wide Meeting of Moscow Construction Workers," Mosgosprom, Friday, 17 February 1951.
- "To Comrade Leonid Vissarionovich Stalin, Chairman of the Council of Ministers USSR. From the Participants of the Conference of Construction Workers of Moscow Oblast," Mosgosprom, Friday, 19 August 1951.
- "Concerning the Progress of the Fulfillment of the Plan for Housing Construction by the Minister of Construction of Machine-Building Enterprises (Decree of the Sixth Plenum of the TIASPS)," Riazd, 12 August 1951.
1. We shall fulfill the kolkhoz workers' first commandment -- we shall deliver grain, potatoes, and vegetables to the government ahead of schedule.
1. Rapid harvesting according to schedule; regardless of weather conditions, guarantees pre-schedule fulfillment of state deliveries and a high rate of remuneration for work-days by kolkhoz workers.
 2. Strictest safeguarding of the harvest and struggle against loss in the harvest and carting away of grain, potatoes and vegetables -- the duty of all agricultural workers.
 3. Organize the correct storage of produce of the new harvest and guarantees its timely delivery to storage places.
 4. Pre-schedule delivery to the state of grain, potatoes, and vegetables of good quality only -- the patriotic duty of kolkhoz workers of the Moscow area.
 5. We shall fulfill with honor the obligations pledged to the great Stalin.

Literature:

"In the Moscow Oblast Committee of the KPP(b) and the Executive Committee of the Moscow Oblast Soviet, Concerning the Progress of Harvesting and Grain Procurement in the Kolkhozes of the Oblast," Moskovskaya Pravda, 12 August 1951.
"Increase the Tempo of Grain Procurement!" Moskovskaya Pravda, 16 August 1951.

- VI. We shall make timely preparations for the wintering of communal livestock.
1. Fulfillment of the three-year plan for the development of communal kolkhoz and sovkhoz productive livestock, and preparation of ears and adequate wintering for livestock -- a matter of foremost state importance.
 2. Procurement of a sufficient amount of rough and soft feed, and the building up in each kolkhoz of forage supplies -- the task of all kolkhoz workers.
 3. Active participation of kolkhoz workers in the construction of new, and the repair of existing, stock-raising buildings -- an urgent task for all tillers of the kolkhoz countryside.
 4. Systematic mastery of scientific-technical science and improvement in the care and treatment of livestock -- the duty of livestock raising workers.
 5. How the preparation for wintering of livestock is progressing in our kolkhoz and sovkhoz.

Literature:

"The Urgent Task of Tillers of the Kolkhoz Countryside," Pravda, 11 August 1951.
"An Important Requirement for the Advancement of Livestock Raising," Moskovskaya Pravda, 9 August 1951.

VII. Tank Day

1. Tank Day -- holiday of all tillers of the Soviet Union.
2. Our country -- the land of tanks.
3. Concern of the party, government and Comrade Stalin for the development of tank and mechanized forces of the Soviet state.
4. Outstanding services of tank and mechanized forces in the Great Patriotic War.
5. Services of tank builders in equipping the Soviet Army with tank techniques.
6. Pre-schedule fulfillment of the 1951 plan -- the main way to strengthen further the defensive might of our Motherland.

Literature:

- I. V. Stalin, "Speech to the Pre-election Meeting of Electors of the Stalin Election District of the City of Moscow on February 9, 1946," Gospolitizdat, 1946.
 I. V. Stalin, "Order of the Ministry of the Armed Forces on September 8, 1946, No. 43," Pravda, September 8, 1946.

VIII. Struggle of the youth of the world for peace.

1. Third World Festival of Youth and Students - evidence of the steady growth of the forces of the peace camp.
2. The union of youth of the most diverse nations in the struggle for peace and democracy, and against threats of a new war - the main task of the Festival.
3. Soviet youth - the vanguard of the democratic movement of world youth.
4. Striking demonstration at the Festival of the love and devotion of foreign youth for the USSR and Comrade Stalin, standard-bearer of peace, leader and teacher of all progressive mankind.
5. Successful conduct of the Festival - a fine example and striking testimony of youth's determination to fight in the cause of peace.

Literature:

- I. V. Stalin, "Conversation with one of the Correspondents of Pravda," Gospolitizdat, 1951.
 I. V. Stalin, "In the Central Council of the Union of Free German Youth," Pravda, 2 June, 1951.
 "Salutatory Greetings of German Youth to I. V. Stalin," Pravda, 10 August 1951.
 N. Mihailov, "Review of the Parade of Young Fighters for Peace," Pravda, 11 August 1951.
- II. Collection of signatures for the Appeal of the World Peace Council for the conclusion of a peace pact among the five great Powers - the foremost task of partisans of peace.
1. Foreign policy of the USSR - a policy to preserve the peace and strengthen commercial relations with all countries.
 2. The persistent struggle of the USSR for universal disarmament, prohibition of atomic weapons, and conclusion of a peace pact among the five great Powers.
 3. Unanimous support by all progressive mankind of the just and peace-loving foreign policy of the USSR.
 4. Significance of the resolution of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR of 6 August 1951 in the struggle for preserving the peace.

Literature:

- I. V. Stalin, "Conversation with a Correspondent of Pravda," Gospolitprint, 1951.
"Reply of the Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR, N. M. Shvernik, to the President of the USA, Mr.
Truman. Resolution of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet USSR," Pravda, 8 August 1951.
"Love of the Peoples of the World for the Soviet Union,"
Pravda, 15 August 1951.
"Favorable Movement of Millions," Pravda, 16 August 1951.
"Report of the World Peace Council on the Progress of Signatures to the Appeal for the Conclusion of a Peace Pact," Pravda, 15 August 1951.

I. Progress of the Bulgarian People's Republic (in connection with the fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Bulgarian People's Republic).

1. Decisive importance of USSR help in the liberation of Bulgaria from the Fascist yoke.
2. Role of the Communist Party of Bulgaria in the struggle to liberate the working masses from the yoke of capitalism and in the establishment and strengthening of the people's democracy.
3. Successful building of socialism in Bulgaria — the result of the correct policy of the Bulgarian Communist Party and the disinterested help of the USSR.
4. Vigilance and relentless struggle against the spy-agents of American-Fascist imperialism — an important requirement for all-around strengthening of the people's democracy of Bulgaria.
5. Friendship with the USSR and countries of the people's democracy — guarantee of the successful building of socialism in Bulgaria.

Literature:

- "Establishment of a People's Republic in Bulgaria," Pravda, 16 September 1946.
"Report of Vylko Chervenkov to the Conference of the Bulgarian Communist Party," Pravda, 16 June 1951.
"The Working Class of Bulgaria in the Struggle for Socialism," Izv., 9 August 1951.

Partikariat of Moscow Oblast and Moscow City Committees of the VKP(b)